1. General Nicolae Rădescu has informed a friend in Paris that, following his audience with King Mihai, he believes that the Rumanian National Committee can be enlarged if the political parties request such action.
2. According to Rădescu, he was asked to participate in the formation of a Congress of Rumanians in Exile while in Italy. Rădescu has requested the aid of several National Peasants in France in the creation of such an organization. This Congress is visualized as representative of the Rumanian emigration in all countries. One of its purposes would be the "reform" of the present National Committee. It would appoint an "emigration committee" to supervise relief funds to emigres and would forbid any contributor to aid any individual refugee and would demand that all close holding funds expend them through the Congress. Proposals of various sorts, the content of which is not known, are being made to individuals and organizations among the refugees in order to secure their support for such a Congress.
